“Spreading the Gospel Through Music”

Dan’s ministry started when he was in his teens, after accepting what Jesus Christ had done for him. Dan endured a severe speech impediment during his teen years. The anger and frustration controlled his life. It all was released one night by realizing and accepting that Jesus Christ died for all his trials and pain. Dan continues to stutter but God has blessed him with a singing voice that he has used for decades for the Glory of God.

Dan’s music ministry enables him to share how God has touched his life. The music reaches out to others in a special way to show them the love that Jesus Christ has for them.

For many years and thousands of miles Dan sang almost every weekend. In 2001, Dan resigned from his full time job of twenty-five years and went into full time ministry. Some might say that it was a step of faith, but Dan likes to say, “It was God’s time.” Now in full time ministry Dan is able to travel further from his home base. Much of Dan’s time is spent being with ones who are hurting because of situations in their lives. In a hurting world, God uses a simple song and a listening ear.

You can explore more of Dan Schall Ministries at the website above. On the site you are able to hear some of Dan’s music and read his testimony. Recordings can be ordered at the site.

On the website you can request prayer. Once the prayer request is received Dan forwards it to the Prayers Warriors on his list.

Each week there is a web cast where Dan shares some music and some thoughts. The web cast has a format very similar to his concerts.
